Coulter's Crusade

Northumberland neighbour-in-arms gives DoD a dose of déjà vu

A fellow dissenter from across the border has been subjected to the same apathy and ignorance from his so-called public servants that we have had to deal with here in Dumfries & Galloway.

Stocksfield's Tim Coulter - whose career as a qualified architect spans five decades - has been receiving the 'Position Closed' treatment from Hexham MP, Guy Opperman, despite backing his correspondence with mountains of evidence with official government documentation and statistics... sound familiar?

Tim has been writing to Opperman, the current Minister of State for Employment, since December 2020, and we have included just a small sample of his work - including notices to both Opperman and then-Minister for COVID Vaccine Deployment, Nadhim Zahawi - on the web page beneath this article. "I have much more correspondence with Guy Opperman which continues to date. It would amount to a large book," Tim informed DoD. "I sent him an extensive agenda for a meeting in June 2021, but it was refused as the subject was apparently taboo. This resulted in my two Notices of Potential Malfeasance in Public Office sent to Opperman in early 2022."

Given similar battles here in D&G, DoD readers will easily empathise with the struggles Tim has had with his parliamentary representative, but what else can be expected from a man who voted YES to rights-violating face masks, YES to totalitarian Covid passes and YES to mandatory jabs for NHS workers, as though he or anyone else ever had the right? We wonder if Mr Opperman would be able to provide the ever-elusive evidence of the lawful obligation binding the people to the statutory system, where all others have failed?

"Looking back, I am proud of my diligence and believe it constitutes a fine body of evidence!" Tim told DoD. I'm sure our readers would agree, and we salute the tenacity of our Northumberland neighbour-in-arms, for which he has earned himself a rightful place on the Declaration of Dumfries Wall of Honour. We hope he appreciates the sentiment, every bit as much as Opperman appreciates his ignominious position on the DoD Wall of Shame.

The nationwide indifference and cognitive dissonance of those in positions of public office such as the MP for Hexham goes a long way to explaining how we ever arrived at this disturbing juncture in history - on which note, we will leave our readers with this prophetic quote from a 1984 interview with KGB defector, Yuri Besmenov, in which he explains the communist method of ideological subversion that has so deeply penetrated western societies, leading to the proliferation of ineffectual and cowardly career politicians such as Opperman:

"... half-baked intellectuals are now occupying the positions of power in the government, civil service, business, mass media, educational system [...] they are contaminated, they are programmed to think and react to certain stimuli in a certain pattern* - you cannot change their mind even if you expose them to authentic information, even if you prove that white is white and black is black..."

*For which, sadly, there is no vaccine.
